40 Years in Service

August 13, 2021 is the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program's 40th anniversary! 40 years ago, the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1981 was signed into law on August 13, 1981, authorizing and establishing the Home Energy Assistance Program we offer today. Four decades of success could not have happened without the incredible work of so many people, from federal partners at the Office of Community Services, to State leaders at offices like DHCD and local agencies in all communities across the country.

For forty years, this national program has helped low-income families pay their home heating and cooling bills. This program is at the core of Health and Human Services' mission—enhancing the health and well-being of all those in need. An estimated 5.3 Million households across the United States received assistance with heating and cooling costs through LIHEAP.

What You Need To Know

All eligible homeowners and renters, including households whose cost of heat is included in the rent, can apply at a LIHEAP agency in their area — visit www.mass.gov/hed/fuel (or scan QR code below) for the listing!

Eligibility is based on a number of factors, including but not limited to, household size and the gross annual income of every household member 18 years of age or older.

Household income cannot exceed 60% of estimated State Median Income. You will be provided more information on the application process when you contact your local LIHEAP agency.
